

Discover

Share

Think Together

Practice

Reflect

Discover

Every lesson starts with a Discover task to get children to solve a problem that aims to generate curiosity. During the Discover section children may use manipulatives to help them understand the maths and explain their method.

Discover

Share

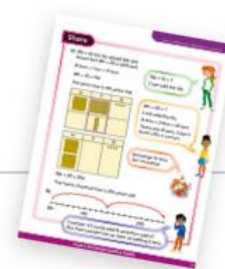

Think Together

Practice

Reflect

Share

The next stage encourages children to Share the methods they have tried to solve the problem in Discover.

Discover

Share

Think Together

Practice

Reflect

Think Together

We only learn when we are thinking! In this section Power Maths takes the approach "I do, we do, you do", as children apply the knowledge they have just learned in a series of problems that continue to encourage thinking throughout.

Discover

Share

Think Together

Practice

Reflect

Practice

Children are then ready for some independent Practice.

Discover

Share

Think Together

Practice

Reflect

Reflect

The final Reflect question helps the children evaluate whether they have understood the key concept and small step that they have been trying to master in the lesson.

