

Anti-Bullying Week

Our children have been amazing in demonstrating their knowledge of what constitutes a bully, why children bully and also who they can go to or what they can do if they or a friend is being bullied.

We highlighted to our children that working to help prevent bullying happens all year and reiterated the importance of being safe online and speaking out to a trusted adult. For more information, follow this link.

World Cup

The 2022 World Cup is finally here and England kick things off against Iran in the Group B opener on Monday. As this is in the afternoon during school, we will be having the game play in each classroom so that the children who are interested can watch.

Jiggle and Wiggle

We are really excited to have Jiggle and Wiggle starting again. If you have a baby or toddler who loves music and signing, you are welcome to join us on a Friday morning at 9:30 am.
