

'Pride in learning together'

We have had a busy week with Y3M starting their swimming lessons and Year 1 having fun on balance bikes. Year 6 have also been working on possible fund-raising ideas to support their residential and prom which will be taking place later in the year. Next week we are celebrating the NSPCC Number day (Mr Casey will be sharing more about this on Dojo).

Attendance for the week beginning 16.01.23
Y2F	99.29%	Expected Attendance
Rec P, Rec M	99%	Expected Attendance
Y6Ke	98%	Expected Attendance
Y3M, Y3K, Y4H, Y5D	97%	Expected Attendance
Y2M	96%	Expected Attendance
Y1C, Y1D, Y6Ki	95%	Concern of under achievement
Y5C	90%	Risk of under achievement

Table Top Sale

A lot of you were really up for the Spring Table Top sale idea. Sadly, I have only received a couple of Bags so far.

We still have time for you to have a look to see if you have anything you would like to donate, so I am including this message in this week's newsletter as a reminder (I will also be asking staff).

We would like any children's toys, books (including adult books), bric-a-brac and stationary. Also, if there are any avid gardeners who could donate small plants, we could also sell these.

Coffee Morning

Mrs Denovan will be holding a coffee morning on Thursday 9th February. She would love you to call in and have a coffee or tea with a piece of cake.

Mrs Denovan will supply everything (with the help of staff); so, don't worry about bringing any money as it is not a fund-raising event. She just wants to offer you the opportunity to have a sit down in a warm room and a chat. We look forward to seeing you.

Announcing 'Listen Up, Speak Up'

The NSPCC has unveiled their new 'Listen Up, Speak Up' campaign, aimed at giving adults practical advice, about how to address concerns about a child. #ListenUpSpeakup

The new NSPCC campaign, is designed for these situations, and I hope you'll find it useful. If interested please follow the link below:
