

World Book Day

We had an amazing day yesterday dressing up as a range of characters from our class books.

Children also had a great time taking part in a range of activities linked to stories, including reading, art and PSHE. Thank you to parents and carers for supporting the day and helping to make it a great success.

Easter Fundraiser

Next week we will be sharing our number boards for children to guess the number of sweets in a jar. You can have one guess for 50p. The KS2 board will be in Mrs. Donovan's room at morning break for KS2 children and the KS1 and EYFS board will be in the KS1 corridor at their morning break.

Readathon

Our Readathon started this week on Tuesday 28th February and finished yesterday. Children were tasked with collecting sponsors for the number of times they read for the three days. Children have until the 10th March to collect in all sponsorship money. If you require any further information, please contact Mrs. Keyes.

Book Fair

We have our travelling book fair in school from Monday to Thursday next week. Our Literacy Leads, Mrs Partridge and Mrs Keyes, will be sharing more information on class dojo.
