

Next week we have our Big Breakfast Bonanza, Remembrance Day assembly and on Friday, we will also be supporting BBC Children in Need.

We are inviting children to wear something spotty with their uniform or a Pudsey Bear t-shirt. All donations will go towards play equipment for our children.

Stars in the Jar

We have two winners for the Stars in the Jar competition for last half term. Both Mr. Casey and Mrs. Keyes classes managed to collect 14 stars.

Each class has spent some time thinking about what they would like as a prize. Both Mr Casey's and Mrs Keyes' classes have chosen to have a pyjama and film afternoon. Mr Casey's class had their treat today and Mrs Keyes' class will be having their treat on Tuesday.

Big Breakfast Bonanza

Next week, we will be holding our second Big Breakfast Bonanza.

We have a range of exciting things planned including food tasting, team building as well as activities linked to Anti-Bullying week.

Mrs. Lester has shared the themes for each day on Class Dojo. All children (Reception – Year 6) are welcome from 8am. It helps if you book in on ParentMail so we can make sure we have enough food and resources; however, we never turn anyone away.

Coffee Morning

On Monday, Miss Shepherd, our SENDCO, has organised a coffee morning for parents and carers linked to the Derbyshire PINS Project (The Partnership for Inclusion of Neurodiversity in Schools - PINS).

You are welcome to join us from 9am in the school hall (come to the main reception). There is no charge to attend and we will be providing tea, coffee and biscuits.
